

A new dynamic research tool provided by the World Trade Organization

A screenshot of the WTO iLibrary website interface. At the top, there are navigation links for "ABOUT", "CONTACT US", and "HELP". On the right side of the header, there are social media icons for Facebook and Twitter, and a "Log in" button. The main header area contains the "WTO iLibrary" logo, a search bar with the placeholder text "Rechercher tout le contenu", and a "FR" language selector. Below the search bar is a blue navigation bar with menu items: "Browse by Theme", "Browse by Country", "Browse by Theme & Country", "Catalogue", and "Statistics". The main content area features a large banner image of a shipping port with a ship and stacks of containers. Overlaid on the left side of the banner is a book cover for the "World Trade Report 2017: Trade, Technology and Jobs". To the right of the book cover, the text "What's new ?" is displayed in a large font, followed by the title "World Trade Report 2017: Trade, Technology and Jobs". Below the title is a short paragraph describing the report's focus on technology, trade, and employment. A green "LEARN MORE" button is positioned below the text. At the bottom of the banner, there are three small white circles indicating a carousel.

An invaluable source of information on global trade

The WTO iLibrary brings together, for the first time, into one self-contained area all the WTO's key research material on global trade.

The platform contains:

Over 400 titles published by the WTO or co-published with other international organizations, comprising almost 4,000 chapters.

Over 30 WTO titles co-published with Cambridge University Press, comprising over 500 chapters.

Over 400 dispute settlement reports.

A range of statistical data on trade topics.

Over 200 WTO working papers.

Content is made available in a variety of digital formats, including PDF, HTML and CSV.

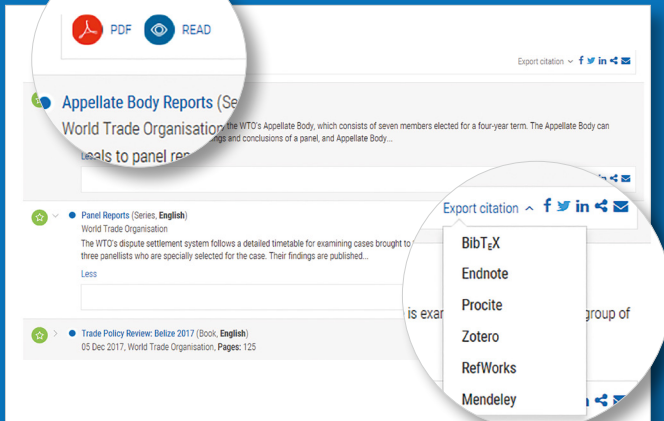

Enriched metadata makes the content full searchable, meaning users can drill down easily to their specific areas of interest.

The screenshot shows the WTO iLibrary page for 'Trade Policy Reviews'. The top navigation bar includes 'ABOUT', 'CONTACT US', and 'HELP'. A search bar is present with the text 'Search all content' and 'Advanced Search'. Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for 'Browse by Theme', 'Browse by Country', 'Browse by Theme & Country', 'Catalogue', and 'Statistics'. The main content area is titled 'Trade Policy Reviews' and features a description: 'Monitoring of national trade policies is a fundamentally important activity running throughout the work of the WTO. At the centre of this work is the Trade Policy Review Mechanism (TPRM). All WTO members are reviewed, the frequency of each member's review varying according to its share of world trade. For each review, two documents are prepared: a policy statement and a report by the Trade Policy Review Body. The opening section - "key trade facts" - provides a visual overview of the WTO member's major exports/imports, main export destinations, origins for its imports and other key data. This edition looks into the trade practices of European Union.' There are also links for 'Subscribe to the RSS feed', 'More', and 'English'. Below the description, there is a section for 'Trade Policy Review: European Union 2017' with a world map icon and a description: 'Trade Policy Reviews analyse the trade policies and practices of each member of the WTO. The reviews consist of three parts: an independent report by the WTO Secretariat, a report by the government, and the concluding remarks by the Chair of the WTO's Trade Policy Review Body. The opening section - "key trade facts" - provides a visual overview of the WTO member's major exports/imports, main export destinations, origins for its imports and other key data. This edition looks into the trade practices of European Union.' There are also links for 'CITE THIS PUBLICATION', 'EMAIL THIS PAGE', 'Less', 'English', and 'Click to access: PDF READ'. An ever-expanding research tool

The WTO

The World Trade Organization (WTO) deals with the global rules of trade between nations. Its main function is to ensure trade flows as smoothly, predictably and freely as possible.

The WTO iLibrary will be regularly updated and expanded to incorporate new content on global trade.

The WTO iLibrary has been developed in partnership with the OECD. For questions related to access and subscriptions, please contact:

WTO-ilibrary@oecd.org

For questions about content, please contact:

WTO-iLibrary@wto.org

OECD has also worked in partnership with other intergovernmental organisations to establish "one-stop shop" iLibraries. These include:

- Commonwealth Secretariat
- International Telecommunication Union
- Nordic Cooperation
- United Nations.

These platforms complement the OECD iLibrary:
